WULLIE IS A WINNER

Francis G. Lloyd's Scottish Terrier Is Making His Mark.

One of the best puppies that has been seen in years is the Scottish terrier Walescott Maister Wullie, bred and owned by the veteran fancier Francis G. Lloyd of Bernardsville, N. J. Maister day Will End Most Successful Season.

FIEET NOW NUMBERS 34

G. Lloyd of Bernardsville, N. J. Maister Wullie made his debut at the Scottish Terrier Club's specialty show held at the Hotel Biltmore last June, where he captured a number of first and special prizes. On the day following this show at Mineola he swept through his classes, getting winners under the well known English judge Holland Buckley, defeating among others the famous Champion Clonnel Braw Laddie feating among others the famous Champion Clonmel Braw Laddie. Champion Clonmel Braw Laddie.

This was indeed a remarkable feat for an American bred and especially one of such imnature age. However, the ringsiders were united in their opinion that he deserved all the wins he received and all agree that Maister Wullie is one of the finest specimens of the Scottish breed ever seen in this country. Scottish breed ever seen in this country. Since this win last spring he has been coming along well and at the coming winter shows he not only should have an easy time winning his championship, but should be able to carry the American bred colors to the front in many a variety and unclassified special class.

Maister Wullie is by Walescott Daredevil ex Champion Walescott Shady Lady. He was whelped July 20 191

DOG'S WINNINGS ALLOWED.

Disqualify Ostrov. A meeting of the stud book commit-tee of the American Kennel Club was held recently to take action in the mat-ter of the cancellation of the winnings of the Russian Wolfhound bitch Ostrov O'Valley Farm at the charity dog show, held March 20. A protest was filed with the bench show committee of the charity show against Ostrov O'Valley Farm on the ground that she was not the bona fide property of the exhibitor, and also that she was shown as owned by a kennel whose kennel name had not been registered.

M. M. Palmer appeared before the bench show committee and claimed to be the owner of the bitch on that day. He made no claim that he was the ex-hibitor of the bitch under Rule IX. of in Warfare," and the latest is from the rules governing dog shows, which says that every dog must be the bona who has the following to say of the ambulance dogs used in the war:
